I. What do you know about these people?/Do you think they were good citizens?

II. How to be a good citizen? Use phrasal verbs in the box to write your answer. You can also use the expression “I need...” to start the sentences. (We use need to to express possibility / necessity. We use the –ing form / infinitive after need to.)

look after-pick up-clean off-throw away-learn about-listen to-be aware

III. As humans, do you think we all have the right to these basic human needs?

Which of the statements do you agree / disagree with. Why?

Match the two halves of the statements.

I'm Ben. I'm from Venezuela. I'm a journalist I lost my job because I'm not agree with the president's ideas, and many articles about that are written every day in the news paper. In Venezuela people are usually fired from their jobs because they think different. They are not respected, they are not allowed to express freely; Students are killed in the streets; The country is destroyed by the corruption; All the political system is damaged

Now I have nowhere to go. I sleep on the streets or in the park. I try to find other homeless people to sleep with because it is less dangerous. Sometimes we are shouted at by passers-by, but sometimes we are helped by people ;and some clothes and blankets are given us.

V. Write second conditional sentences about the situation of our country according with the human rights.-Ex. If people respected each other we would have the perfect country.
